“Employment Law Update”

Our presenter, Thomas A. Dixon, Eastman and Smith, will review recent employment law developments, what's on the horizon for next year, along with time for questions and answers.

Mr. Dixon practices throughout Ohio in the area of management labor and employment law. His practice covers the range of employment issues, including counseling on employment policies and handbooks, training of supervisors and managers, representation in administrative proceedings, defending discrimination claims, and providing guidance on the Americans With Disabilities Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, drug testing, sexual harassment, wage-hour matters, and a variety of other issues. He also provides assistance on union organizational campaigns, union avoidance, negotiation and administration of labor contracts, labor arbitration, wrongful discharge, employment-at-will litigation and civil rights litigation.
