Hot Employment Issues for 2011

What impact will the recent elections have on pending state and federal legislation and administrative agency agendas? Is there significant employment legislation that may pass in the lame duck session?
What recent court decisions will have the greatest impact on our workplaces?
What are the hottest employment issues for 2011?

Our presenter, James B. Yates, Esq., SPHR will discuss these issues and more.

Our Speaker:

Our speaker: James B. Yates is a member of Eastman & Smith Ltd.'s labor and employment group. He represents public and private sector employers in all facets of labor and employment law matters including collective bargaining, general personnel planning and counseling, equal employment opportunity matters, workers' compensation and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act and the Occupational Safety and Health Act. Mr. Yates has represented employers in labor and employment law related matters with various agencies such as the Industrial Commission, NLRB, EEOC, OSHA, SERB, OCRC, OBES and in state and federal courts and arbitration tribunals. He regularly consults with clients regarding the drafting and implementation of employment policies and conducts supervisor training and is a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR). Mr. Yates is a frequent speaker at seminars regarding a myriad of labor and employment law topics.
