

Training Roundtable
June 17, 2010
Noon – 1:30 p.m.
Brandywine Country Club

The Training Series gives you the opportunity to share ideas, concerns, successes, and opinions with your peers. By pooling resources and experiences, members come away with fresh ideas. These sessions often launch new ideas that help members improve their organizations' profits and productivity. This valuable information helps training professionals stay up-to-date with new developments needed to create a climate of life long learning in their organizations.

The Employers' Association believes in providing services in a timely manner and the Training Roundtable Series is no different with prompt start and stop time – noon to 1:30 p.m. - at Brandywine Country Club. A facilitator keeps the discussion flowing and lunch is included in the series price.

Location
Brandywine Country Club
6904 Salisbury Rd., Maumee, OH
Noon to 1:30 p.m.

“Training Versus Learning; How Focusing On One Impacts The Other”

In today's environment, executing a training strategy can be a real challenge. Staff cuts, travel restrictions, and limited budgets all present hurdles for HR and Training & Development professionals. Gail Zeisloft will be drawing from materials on adult education, participants will gain insights and techniques to increase the impact of instructing their workforce
