

Training Roundtable September 16, 2010 Noon – 1:30 p.m. Brandywine Country Club

The Training Series gives you the opportunity to share ideas, concerns, successes, and opinions with your peers. By pooling resources and experiences, members come away with fresh ideas. These sessions often launch new ideas that help members improve their organizations' profits and productivity. This valuable information helps training professionals stay up-to-date with new developments needed to create a climate of life long learning in their organizations.

The Employers' Association believes in providing services in a timely manner and the Training Roundtable Series is no different with prompt start and stop time – noon to 1:30 p.m. - at Brandywine Country Club. A facilitator keeps the discussion flowing and lunch is included in the series price.

Location
Brandywine Country Club
6904 Salisbury Rd., Maumee, OH
Noon to 1:30 p.m.

Dates for 2010

“Selling Training to Management”

Having your supervisor or other decision-makers in your organization “buy in” to your training role and what you need to achieve through your training initiatives is very important to your success. This presentation will give you some key strategies for you to use in:

- Obtaining resources and funding for training and development
- Having your organization promote the value of training to others
- Obtaining engagement from key leaders during the training process
- Creating a link between training activities and implementation of training outcomes

Our Presenter: Michelle Tambor

Michelle Tambor currently serves as director of training and development for Wood County Hospital in Bowling Green. She has been heavily involved in creating and implementing training programs within a number of areas. Michelle also has extensive experience in the financial services area, and has been a long-term member of the Greater Toledo Chapter of the American Society for Training and Development, serving as vice president of marketing for the association most recently.
